OUR TOWN

Fifty years have gone by since the students of S.H.S. presented their first SAWYER. In presenting this issue we are trying to show the inter-relationship between the SAWYER and the town. Introducing the various sections are scenes of Saugerties correlating the town with phases of our high school life. These scenes are all familiar; they are parts of the lives of Sawyer students—Cantine's . . . their first high school picnic; Main Street . . . their daily lives; a mountain path . . . their environment.

Knowing the importance of the school to Saugerties, we have incorporated "Our Town" as a vital part of school life in making it the theme of the 1963 SAWYER.

"Thus, as our town, we wish our book to continue and grow, a production worthy of S.H.S."

Alma Mater

—Lockwood

Deep in the valley of the Hudson
There nestles 'neath the Catskills high
A school which we so dearly cherish
Whose fame and glory ne'er shall die.
Here friendships blossom day by day
With laugh and song of students gay;
We love thee dear old Alma Mater
Hail, hail to Saugerties.

When manhood claims us for its own
Thy charms shall never, never pall;
But thoughts of thee, our Alma Mater
With fondest love we'll e'er recall.
Your vine-clad walls we will remember;
They hold so many memories.
We love the, dear old Alma Mater
Hail, hail to Saugerties.

A Tribute to Dr. Morse

GRANT D. MORSE, Ph.D.
Superintendent of Schools
Saugerties Central Schools
Sept., 1924-Jan. 31, 1963

With a feeling of pride, of respect, and with a great sense of suitability we dedicate the 1963 SAWYER to our retired Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Grant D. Morse. We are proud of Dr. Morse's record as the administrator of our school system and of its growth under his guidance, inspiration and leadership from a school of a few hundred pupils to a system of over three thousand students today. We respect Dr. Morse for his absolute integrity, his complete devotion to his work and the high standards which he always maintained. We feel that to dedicate THE SAWYER to Dr. Morse is peculiarly suitable for he acted as its advisor for a great many years and was largely responsible for its continuous growth until it has become one of the outstanding yearbooks of the state. To its work he gave many hours of time beyond the call of duty. Thus the 1963 SAWYER is dedicated to the man who dedicated almost 40 years of his life to the schools and youth of Saugerties.

Students of Saugerties High School,

After working with you Saugerties High School students for nearly 40 years (39 in fact), it is not easy to sever official relations with you.

Many of you, of course, do not know me personally because most of my work with you is done through teachers and administrative personnel who meet with you daily. But that does not make my efforts on your behalf less intense, nor my interest less personal.

In saying good-bye to you as your superintendent, I'd like to go over with you briefly some of the features of Saugerties High School in which I think you can take pride, some features from which you have benefited, some features which you may wish to safeguard for others.

First on the list is the behavior of most of you. It's usually of the right type.

Second, is the tradition that you do "today's work today." Though this practice is never easy to follow, most of you welcome a school atmosphere where it is expected of you, and in which every one of your teachers is more than willing to work, nay, even insists on working, with you after the dismissal hour to see that you keep up to date on your assignments.

Third, is the tradition that each of you is encouraged to work in accordance with your individual ability—not regarding yourself as a success if your scholastic achievement is better than the average just because through inheritance the Almighty gave you a better than average mind—not berating yourself as a failure because your bookwork is not so good as that of your more favored classmates, if your talents in dealing with books and words is not so good as that of some others. Along with this atmosphere you have had the experience of most of your teachers' taking into account both your native ability and the extent of your effort when marks were being given out.

Fourth, you enjoy the benefits of a school policy that expects a weekly theme from you over a six-year period. You learn to write through writing—just as you have the opportunity to learn to speak better because your more careful teachers correct your speaking errors as they occur; and secure from you in all English classes a monthly oral report. Thus you learn to improve your ability to communicate.

Fifth, all of your teachers, regardless of the subject (be it English or science, or homemaking, or art, or industrial arts) supply you annually with a revised list of recommended reading to be done outside of school and reported on—all of which inspires you to add pleasantly and profitably to the more routine subject matter covered in class.

Sixth, if you show the interest and indicate the ability, most of your teachers are willing to spend extra time with you discussing your progress and success in extra projects, whether they be in the reading of more than the normally recommended literature in English, or social studies; or projects in science, or language, or industrial arts, or art, or music, or homemaking.

Seventh, if you are among approximately the top 15 per cent of your class scholastically, you enjoy the opportunity to get an enriched program, beginning with the seventh grade, in all subject areas, particularly science, mathematics, and modern foreign languages.

Eighth, when you graduate from Saugerties High School, you know that if you are on a college entrance level of study you must have achieved well enough to pass a Regents examination or its equivalent. You know that you will not get a diploma merely because you were in attendance. Likewise, if you are on a non-Regents level you know that you must meet standards at the end of each year that are reasonably in keeping with your individual ability, and that you are so tested.

Ninth, you enjoy an opportunity to be a member of one or two of the more than forty clubs sponsored and supervised on a weekly basis by your teachers, who give you, through these mediums, an added chance to participate in a learning and social experience which is positive and helpful to you because each of these clubs was chosen by its sponsor on the basis of his or her special interest and ability.

Tenth, you enjoy the opportunity of a positive character-building experience by participating in music and athletics. In both of these areas you have, for a long period of years, given superior public performances. And you have not done so if your achievement in the basic elements of the traditional subjects (reading, writing, arithmetic, etc.) was unacceptable under eligibility standards.

May you always be proud of Saugerties High School.

Sincerely,

Grant D. Morse
Superintendent of Schools

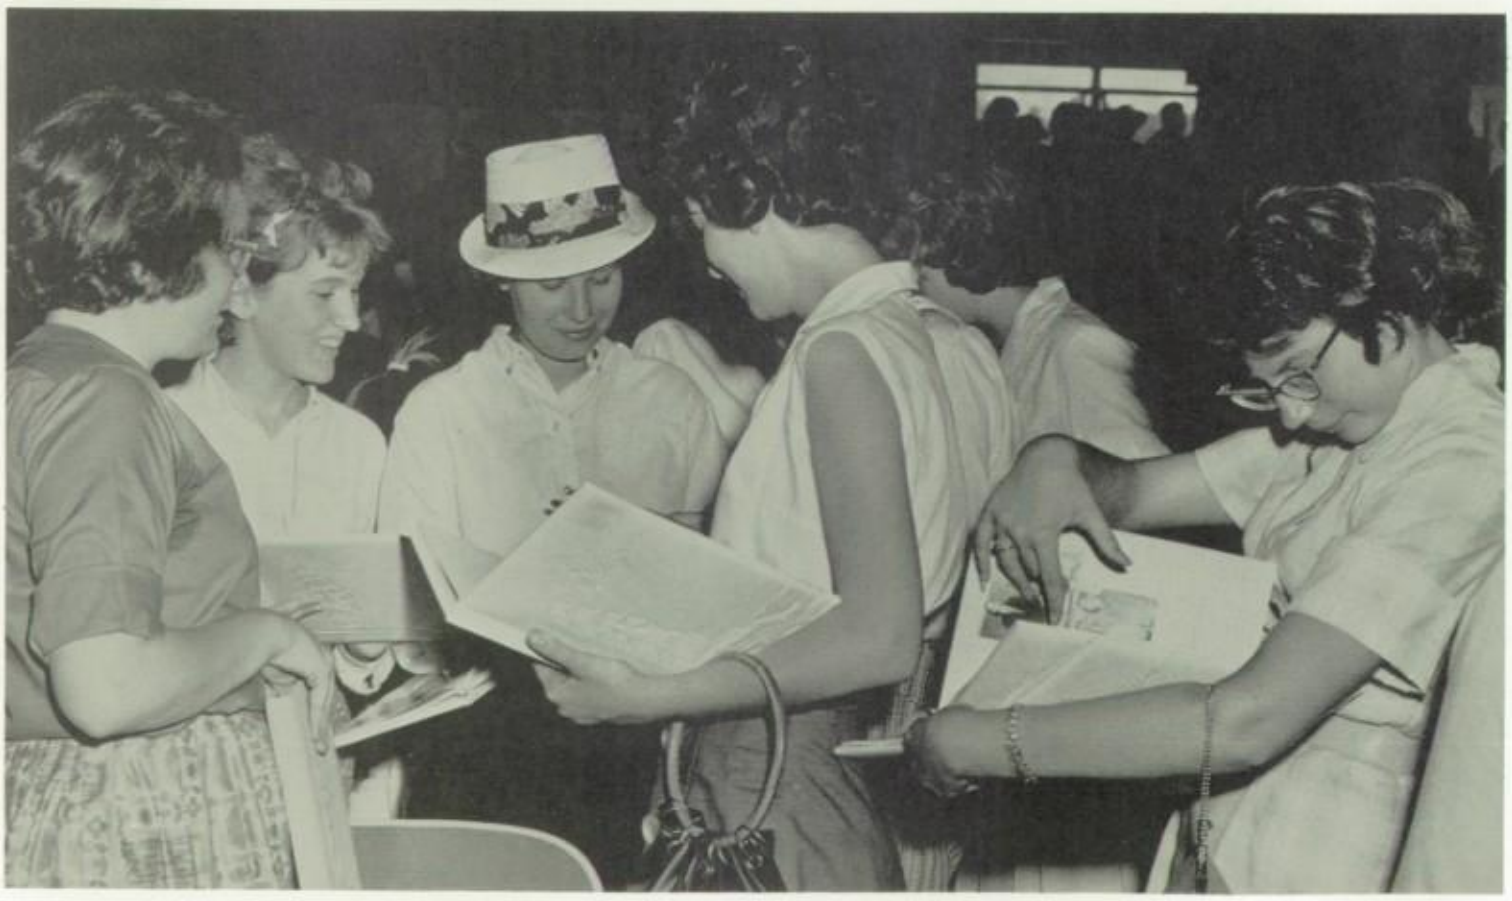
'62 Sawyer on Yearbook

The usual aura of anticipation filled the S.H.S. auditorium on this June afternoon, as the SAWYER Staff prepared to unveil the result of a year of hard work—the 1962 SAWYER. As soon as the staff members had passed out the new editions, the room



Miss Reime, in jauntily cocked hat, seems to enjoy signing SAWYERS.

Distributed Autograph Day

became alive with rapidly circulating yearbooks, ively chatter, and flailing pens. It seemed to the tudent body that the period had just begun when Miss Larned's familiar whistle halted, for the time eing, this great traditional exchange.

Janet Beaton, editor-in-chief, summarizes the year's SAWYER progress.

Eager students exchange their receipts for the 1962 SAWYER.

Senior Song

Juniors, we sing now our fond adieu.
It's been so wondrous; these four years with you.
Tears pierce our eyes now; tears filled with love.
Now comes the future, and remembering of
Our Alma Mater, the joy of our youth.

Farewell, our classrooms, you've housed us long.
Farewell, dear teachers, you taught us to be strong.
Adieu, hallways that hold memories.
Adieu, Alma Mater, the time has come to leave.
Please, '63, replace us with pride.

We will not see your faces anymore,
But we won't find unhappiness in store.
We graduate and leave you in our place;
But we'll return, with God's wondrous grace,
We cannot leave you for all eternity.
We'll see this school soon, if only in our dreams.
But for now, farewell dear Saugerties,
Juniors, drink that passing Sawyer breeze.
Dear class of '63, fare-thee-well.

Carl Rea extends the Junior farewell to the Seniors.

Junior Song

Gonna say good-by to all the seniors,
Gonna say so long for now.
You have to go—but don't forget us;
Doesn't matter how far you roam.
We had our fun—but now it's all over,
You'll be goin' to better things.
Most of all we know we're goin' to miss you—
Still in all we think you're great.

Leavin', leavin' after graduation,
Taking off for summer vacation,
Sharing hopes and fears for future years,
We'll shed no tears.

Never thought you could be so much fun
With the games and balls and all.
Next year things just won't be the same,
We'll remember you again.
Sorry, you'll be leavin' us, Miss Hogan,
Never be the same without you,
How can we succeed when you are gone?
So say so long.

So take your bow and grab your diploma,
Your cap and gown and say so long.
We wish you luck, and hope you find success,
And lead a life of happiness.

Capers Edition

Chuck, Red, Herbie, and Bill give Carl a lift to the green.

Rea hung in effigy! You don't really mean it, do you, girls?

The rising sun of the morning of the 1962 Junior-Senior Picnic saw the Senior Sawyers man the aging battlements against the raging tide of the Junior horde, as the big circle in front of old S.H.S. became the Coliseum where the Juniors would learn how to fill the boots of their elders, or meet a wad of molasses head-on while trying. Inhibitions were thrown aside for an hour or so as the fur flew, (junior fur if you were a senior, or vice-versa). Said capers were just the introduction to set the spirit for the picnic that was to top off that famous day's agenda.

After the Juniors and Seniors had paid due respect to each other at the Frolic in the morning, they clambered into the buses and were off for a day of revelry at Trnka's. Some daredevils braved the icy waters, while the rest autographed THE SAWYER and sunned themselves. After Mr. Cunningham distributed the letter awards, the faculty

The Sophomore Picnic, 1962

As the last fling of the year, the picnic at Trnka's offered the Sophomores a chance to forget their problems and concentrate on fun. After the diving-board and the juke box were given a work-out, the Sophomores turned their attention to food and the letter awards. At the end of the day, a group of tired but happy Sophomores piled into the buses.

Eighth Graders Enjoy Picnic

The Class of '67 took a day off to abandon the halls of learning for some food and fun at Cantine's. After the traditional baseball games and some tennis on the side, the students attacked the food and soda. Mr. Estes highlighted the afternoon with the distribution of junior high school letters, and three o'clock saw the future freshmen off for summer vacation.

Mrs. Smith presents letter awards to these deserving eighth graders.

What gives with the yo-yos?

Hit it again, hit it again—harder, harder!

The joy of a day off is reflected in these girls' beaming smiles.

Not to be outdone by upperclassmen, the Class of '68 wound up their first year in the Saugerties High building with their own annual picnic at Cantine's. Many enjoyed their day on the diamond, the star attraction of the afternoon being the faculty-student baseball contest. Such great names as "Dizzy Dean" Goble and "Mickey Mantle" Moser ran the bases for the faculty.

The Glittering Sno-Ball

The huge snowball hanging from the ceiling, the dim blue lights, and the strings of snowflakes stretched about the gym gave authentic winter effect to this year's theme for the Sno-Ball—"Wonderland by Night."

Dancing to the sound of the Mayone Band, pictures, and refreshments made up the activity for most of the evening. Fortunately, the bad weather outside did not dampen anyone's spirits, for all had a wonderful time.

With the emergence of the first SAWYER in 1913, another in 1914, the next in 1922, and one continuing each year with the exception of a war year, there has come to the Saugerties Central School an undertaking rich both in culture and memories. This year's editors and staff have done their utmost to prepare an outstanding 50th Anniversary yearbook. Each member of the literary, art, business, and advertising staffs has worked with achievement in mind. The work of our advisor, Miss Larned, is an asset without which we could never have produced such a book.

At this time, the SAWYER staff presents to you what we hope is a proud addition to the archives of literary achievement in S.H.S., the 1963 SAWYER.

Our First Community Ambassador

Dorothy Haeussler, class of '62, was selected by the Experiment in International Living and sponsored by the Rotary Club of Saugerties, to be the first "Community Ambassador" from Saugerties. During the summer of 1962 Dorothy visited Costa Rica, Guatemala and Mexico in a group of ten young people and a leader. She lived with a Costa Rican family for one month, enjoyed "first hand" observation of Central American customs, people and government, and visited places of historical interest. Her experience has been of value in improving relations between the United States and Latin America.

The Saugerties High School Esopus Council is a forum of student representatives, one from each homeroom, with the homeroom presidents attending optionally, that tries to advise the administration when problems arise concerning the student body. This year they engaged in the service project of raising funds for the badly needed new trophy case by selling Saugerties High School jackets and emblems. The Council also chooses the Wednesday "Blanket Tax" programs at the beginning of each high school year.

Office Messengers

Seated: J. Vozdik. Standing: S. Schoentag, D. Flick, L. Harris, B. Olsen, S. Sherman, J. Snyder, M. Tice, B. Offermann.

The office messengers engage in duties such as delivering messages from the office and handing out absence lists. It is through the efforts of these girls that many necessary tasks are carried out efficiently.

This year's Sawyers were a young team but managed to finish third in the D.C.S.L. behind Wappingers and Arlington, the former winning the league championship for the third consecutive year. The Sawyers started out with an extremely strong team but lost many of their stars in the early season. They lost the services of pitchers Mike Fury and Keith Mills, catcher Glenn Davis, and outfielder Michael Dodig, and infielder Andy Jacobs, all starters. Most of the remaining players were underclassmen. The only two seniors were co-captains Jim Curley and Lou Spada who led the team on its successful course.

Because of inexperience, the Sawyers were expected to take a beating in the D.C.S.L. league. The team proved, however, that they were to be reckoned with.

Co-captains Bill Schirmer and Rich Reissler led the team to a successful season. A bright light in the team's future was Rich Giannotti who led the team in individual points. Carl Rea and Frank Fusick, both juniors, gave strong support to Giannotti in the sprints. Distance man, Steve Perks, showed great promise in the mile. Chuck Schirmer and Frank Dunn backed up Capt. Schirmer in the shot-put and discus. The 1962 track team shows immense promise for success in coming seasons.

Sawyers Win Third Consecutive D.C.S.L. Crown

The Sawyers continued their flawless record in the 1962 season because of their strong team spirit and desire to win. The fine coaching and conditioning by coach Seither and Coach Smythe produced an undefeated team that won the D.C.S.L. championship, the third consecutive league title for S.H.S.

The forward wall was led by seniors Ed Gunn, Carl Rea, Jerry Smith and Dave Liebergot. Juniors Chuck Schirmer, Al Kane, and Mike Brady completed the crushing line. The swift backfield was composed of senior Frank Fusick and juniors Rich Giannotti, Al Genthner, Paul Buytkins, and Joe Ollinger. Two potential starters, Frank Dunn and Ted Faulkner, were both injured prior to the initial game of the season.

The spirit of the student body spurred the "fighting Sawyers" to its successful season. This spirit was shown at the annual bonfire. The Sawyers received recognition for their efforts at the third annual football banquet at which Y.A. Tittle was guest speaker.

Little Sawyers Have Winning Season

Under the direction of Coach Smythe, the Junior Varsity Football Team finished the season with a 6-1 record.

The swift backfield was comprised of half backs Fred Seither and Terry Reissler and fullback Rich Snyder, while Bruce Owens called the plays. Bill Musser anchored the center of the line as tackles Randy Bielinski and Art Sperl helped to mow down the opposition.

These boys are next year's varsity and if their record is any indication of future football success, S.H.S. should enjoy another championship.

Cheerleaders Strengthen School Spirit

The Varsity and J.V. Cheerleading squads represent the spirit of S.H.S. Under the direction of Miss Reime, the girls and their mascot Linda Myer have done much to add color to the year's athletic events. In addition, they have sponsored buses to the games and have done much to make the Sno-Ball a success. They also played a creditable role in making the Athletic Banquet an unforgettable experience.

Sawyers Build for the Future

Although the 1962-63 Varsity Basketball Team did not have a very fruitful season, it was nevertheless profitable. As Coach Smith has said, this was a building year. Future success will make up for this year's mediocre record. The only member who will be lost from this year's squad is standout Mike Dodig, an all-D.C.S.L. selection. The other four starters, Paul Buytkins and Chuck Schirmer, juniors, and Glenn Davis and Don Leard, sophomores, and the two top reserves, John Crispino and Earl Martin, juniors, will all be returning next year. The Sawyers hope to do much better next season in D.C.S.L. competition.

Junior High Basketball Team Has Fine Season

This year's Saugerties Junior High School basketball team compiled a very good record, winning twelve of its sixteen games. The Sawyer Juniors defeated every team on their schedule at least once, except the Haviland 8th and 9th graders. Their only other losses were to Kingston and Rondout Valley. This team showed the ability to become a good varsity in the future. Mr. Straub instructed the boys in the fundamentals and the winning technique of good basketball. The team was led to victory by Narthy Ritchie, Bob Quick, Jack Whitaker, Bob Wade, and John Woerthmann.

Wrestling Team Has Successful Season

The S.H.S. grapplers had a fine season, winning a majority of their dual matches. The team was destined for top honors in D.C.S.L. competition, but was hurt by the loss of Frank Fusick, who was undefeated in dual meets. The team also suffered the loss of three other key men, Tom Lasher, Pete Carney, and Rich Gillespy, who was injured before the start of the season. Next year, with these three men in action, the team should enjoy a tremendous season.

In September, the Seniors embarked on their last year at S.H.S. Once the election of class officers was dispensed with, the race was on. Next came the annual task of selection of name cards and the measuring for caps and gowns.

1963 was a year of great change for the Senior Class, for it saw the first production of a senior play in six years. Through the initiative and hard work of Mr. Roger Dordick and Mr. Marvin Bowman, Thornton Wilder's Our Town was presented to our town in late February—a stage and financial success.

The annual Senior Ball planning operation was next on the slate. Committees were chosen to handle the various aspects of the dance. Committee reports were then presented to the class; the chosen theme was "Paris by Night."

The Junior-Senior Frolic, Picnic, and Moving-Up Day completed the Seniors' year, all except for that last solemn moment—S.H.S. graduation, 1963.

Senior Play '63 . . . Our Town

—Thornton Wilder

For the first time in six years, the high school auditorium saw a Senior Play come alive on stage—the first three act play to be presented at S.H.S. in many years. Producer-directors Mr. Marvin Bowman and Mr. Roger Dordick took on a difficult task in this production and did a praiseworthy job—much appreciated by the Class of '63.

Classes

Class of

Cosmo Sasso, Alan Kane, John Crispino, John Santoro.

The Junior Class started off this year's activities by electing a group of capable officers. Soon after the elections, the juniors were measured for their class rings, always an important milestone in their lives. As a money-raising project they sold aerial pictures of the Saugerties region. The second semester was highlighted by Moving-Up Day and the fun and frolic at the traditional Junior-Senior Picnic. The picnic concluded the informalities of the junior year and focussed attention upon examinations and the imminence of the final year in Saugerties High School.

THANK YOU

We wish to show special appreciation for their loyalty and support to seven business concerns which advertised in the first issue of THE SAWYER in 1913 that are still among our advertisers in the 1963 edition. The names of the firms may have changed slightly but their support of our yearbook has not. Our heartfelt thanks go to the following business concerns for their long association with THE SAWYER:

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD V. STROHSAHL

Jokes from The 1913 SAWYER

At eight P.M. while Ma and Pa
Helped entertain with Sis,
Both John and Bess in distant chairs
Were far apart as this.
At nine P.M. her Pa withdrew,
At ten, Mamma, she got out, too.
And, O, ye gods, what bliss!
The lovers sat till nearly one,
Aboutascloseasthis.

We saw a thing of greenish hue,
And thought it was a sea of grass,
But when to it we nearer grew,
We found it was the Freshman Class!

TO PARSE "KISS"

Kiss is a noun, tho' generally used as a conjunction. Is never declined. Is more common than proper. Is very seldom singular, most always plural and always agrees with me.
